R C I A

“Listen! I am standing at the door, knocking; if you hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to you and eat with you, and you with me.”

Revelation 3:20

What is the RCIA?

The Rite of Catholic Initiation of Adults (R.C.I.A.) is a process for preparing and welcoming new members into the Catholic Faith.

To whom does the RCIA cater for?

- The Unbaptised
- Baptised Christians from other denominations
- Baptised Catholics seeking to renew their faith

How is it done?

- Faith development and growth is achieved through a series of presentations, sharing and reflection.
- Commences late July. Concludes in May the following year, at Pentecost.
- No meeting during school holidays.

RCIA is a journey of faith, and we need ...

- Candidates ("the tourists")
An adult expressing an interest in the Catholic faith.
- Catechists ("the tour guides")
Help in instructing the Candidates.
- Sponsors ("the travel companions")
Accompany the Candidates in discovery of the Catholic faith.
